

Beth Dell has lived in Westwood since 1999 and is a respected and admired community member with strong social skills and proven ability to cultivate synergy between volunteer groups.

Prior to having her children she was employed by an Italian Machine Tool Manufacturer, Giuliani USA, as an executive responsible for Sales, Supervision of the Service Manager as well as generating accounting reports, forecasts and foreign exchange contracts.

Upon her children entering elementary school, she became an active volunteer and chaired many committees and fundraising events and served as the PTO President for three years.

After that she began serving on the Westwood Washington Township Education Foundation Executive Board and currently holds the title of Vice President. The WWTEF is a district wide non-profit organization that was defunct for many years but during her involvement has raised nearly $300,000 worth of funds for the school district.

Beth is currently the Manager of Glen Courts, an 80 unit senior citizen apartment complex located in Glen Rock, New Jersey. Her varied responsibilities involve administrating a million dollar annual budget, managing all building maintenance, staff and vendors, as well as insuring the safety and well-being of the tenants as they navigate through their day to day activities. She reports to a Board of Trustees, and also interacts with Glen Rock's Mayor, Council and Borough Employees.

Beth is the Senior Warden of the Vestry at Saint Martin's Church in Maywood, NJ where she also chairs fundraising and outreach committees and has served as the Sunday School Administrator and Teacher for 20 years.

Beth is married to Mark, her husband of 23 years, and they have two sons, ages 14 and 18.
